

Bio of John Stemberger

John Stemberger is an AV-rated Orlando attorney who has been a conservative policy advocate for over 30 years. He currently serves as President of Liberty Counsel Action and Senior Counsel of Liberty Counsel. As a native Floridian, Stemberger attended Florida State University, where he studied political science and philosophy before obtaining a Juris Doctorate of Law at the Cumberland School of Law at Samford University. He founded the Institute for Conservative Studies (ICS) as a permanent student-led think-tank at Florida State University.

After legislative internships in both the Florida House and Senate, Stemberger worked with attorney Ken Connor in Tallahassee for several years and then served as the lobbyist for Florida Right to Life with Connor. Stemberger has a unique understanding of law, government, and the media from his extensive political background, advising state, federal, and presidential campaigns. In 1992, he was appointed as the Political Director of the Republican Party of Florida during the final campaign of former President George H. W. Bush. Stemberger has been quoted in news and media sources hundreds of times as an expert on law, policy, culture, and politics, including in the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Time, The Economist, and National Public Radio. His legal, political, and non-profit advocacy work has appeared on ABC News Nightline, Fox News, C-SPAN, MSNBC, and Court TV. Starting in 2001, Florida Governor Jeb Bush twice appointed Stemberger to the Judicial Nominating Commission (JNC) for the Ninth Judicial Circuit of Florida, where he served for eight years screening and recommending new judge candidates in Central Florida. In 2017-2018, he was appointed to and served as a member of the historic Florida Constitution Revision Commission, which only convenes once every twenty years.

A sought-after speaker around the country, John Stemberger is also a member of the Council for National Policy, and in a feature article on his work, the Miami Herald called him “One of the most interesting and influential people you’ve never heard of.” In 2009, Orlando Magazine named him one of the top 50 most powerful people in Central Florida. In 2018, Florida Trend Magazine named him one of the top 500 most influential business leaders in Florida and in 2022, he was named in the Florida Power 100 as one of the most influential political players in Florida by City and State magazine.

In addition to the private practice of law, in 2004, Stemberger became the President of the Florida Family Policy Council (FFPC). Since starting the FFPC, he served as Chairman of the campaign to amend Florida’s Constitution to define marriage as the union of one man and one woman, adopted by 61.9% of Florida voters in 2008. He also launched the “Florida Judicial Accountability Project” by filing a federal lawsuit against the Florida Bar and Judicial Qualifications Commission to strike down Florida’s gag order, which prohibits judge candidates from announcing their views on issues during their campaigns and created a statewide judicial voter guide. In 2024, Stemberger led the grassroots campaign to defeat the pro-abortion Amendment 4 in Florida.

In 2009, Stemberger’s law firm received international media attention for representing Rifqa Bary, the Muslim teenager from Columbus, Ohio, who fled to Orlando, Florida, after she was threatened with being killed by her father for not renouncing her faith after her conversion from Islam to Christianity was discovered. Rifqa’s book Hiding in the Light tells her remarkable story and has been a New York Times best seller.

As an Eagle Scout and former Scoutmaster, John was one of the primary founders and was named as Chairman of the Board Emeritus of Trail Life USA, a Christian scouting movement for boys that started in 2014 and now has around 50,000 members with over 1,500 troops chartered in all 50 states.

In 2023, Stemberger published the book Legacy of Life. This full-color commemorative table book honors fifty of the greatest pro-life leaders from the last fifty years. With a foreword by Ben Shapiro, each tribute is written by a nationally recognized leader. The book is chronologically laid out, filled with never-before-heard stories, and beautiful art and photos.
